THE STAFF

Tommy Tuberville

Head Coach

Second Season • Southern Arkansas '76

Fresh off an eight win season and a win over Northwestern in the TicketCity Bowl, Texas Tech head coach Tommy Tuberville begins his second season.

In year one, Tuberville led the Red Raiders to an 8-5 record and became the first coach in school history to win a bowl game in his first season. Armed with a prolific offense and an improving defense, the Red Raiders secured their 11th consecutive bowl bid by ending the regular-season with back-to-back wins. Tuberville's strong bowl history proved beneficial for the Red Raiders as he led them to a 45-38 win over Northwestern, which gave Tech its third consecutive win over a Big Ten foe. His successful debut led to a one-year contract extention that will keep him on the Tech sideline through the 2015 season.

The excitement for Tuberville's first season was historic as a new single-season school record for season tickets was established with sales peaking at 46,565. Along the way, Tech also set a new standard for home attendance as as an average of 57,107 fans attended the six home games at Jones A&T Stadium.

Tuberville inherited a program (Jan. 10, 2010) that had been bowl eligible for a Big 12 record 16 consecutive seasons and won 29 games in the last three seasons.

In 10 seasons at Auburn, Tuberville led the Tigers to 85 overall wins, which ranks fourth in school history. The Tigers also won 49 Southeastern Conference games, a number that is the fourth-best mark in the SEC. Tuberville led Auburn to seven straight bowl appearances, including New Year's Day bowl games in four of those years.

In 2007, Tuberville led Auburn to an 9-4 mark, including a 5-3 record in the Southeastern Conference with wins at No. 4 Florida and a record-setting sixth consecutive win over Alabama in the Iron Bowl. The Tigers concluded the season with an overtime victory over Clemson in the Chick-fil-A Bowl, marking the program's fifth bowl victory in the last six seasons. For the second consecutive year, Tuberville was a finalist for the Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year award for his efforts on and off the field.

The 2006 season saw Tuberville direct the Tigers to their second season with at least 10 wins in the previous three years with an 11-2 record after a 17-14 victory over Nebraska in the AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic. One of three finalist for the inaugural Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year award, Tuberville's 2006 squad was the only program in the country to defeat two teams ranked in the top five nationally - National Champion Florida and LSU.

Coming off a perfect 13-0 season in 2004, expectations for Tommy Tuberville's 2005 Auburn squad were modest after the Tigers lost four players to the first round of the NFL draft, including their entire starting backfield. But Auburn surprised many of the experts, finishing 9-3 and earning a share of its fifth Southeastern Conference Western Division title in six years. Auburn ended the regular season with back-to-back victories over Georgia and Alabama - two teams ranked at the time in the top 10 - setting a new school record in the process with 22 victories over a two year period.

In 2004, Tuberville led Auburn to its best season ever as the Tigers won a school-record 13 games and captured the SEC Championship and the NOKIA Sugar Bowl title. Auburn won its first conference title since 1989 including its first outright championship since 1987.

Auburn defeated five top 15 teams, becoming just the 10th NCAA Division I-A team to finish 13-0 or better. The Tigers earned their first ever berth in a Bowl Championship Series game and defeated VirginiaTech, 16-13 in the Sugar Bowl. For his efforts, Tuberville was named the AFCA, Associated Press, Paul "Bear" Bryant, FCA, SEC and Walter Camp Coach of the Year.

The season before Tuberville's arrival, Auburn finished with a dismal 3-8 overall record and a last place finish in the SEC Western Division. Tuberville guided the program back to the top of the league standings, leading Auburn to an SEC Championship, five Western Division titles including outright championships in 2000 and 2004 and co-championships in 2001, 2002 and 2005. Tuberville directed Auburn to eight consecutive bowl appearances, including five New Year's Day bowl berths and three consecutive January 1 bowl games from 2005-07.

Tuberville built an Auburn program that excelled both on and off the field. Players flourished under Tuberville's guidance as Auburn earned 36 first-team All-Southeastern Conference awards, eight All-America honors, 26 SEC All-Freshmen accolades, 57 SEC Player of the Week honors, two SEC Player of the Year awards, two Jacobs Awards presented annually to the league's top blocker and one Most Valuable Player of the SEC Championship game.

Thirty-two players have been selected in the NFL Draft including an SEC-record four in the first round of the draft. Running backs Ronnie Brown and Carnell Williams were taken second and fifth respectively, while cornerback Carlos Rogers was selected ninth overall and quarterback Jason Campbell was picked 25th in the first round. It also marked the first time in NFL Draft history that an entire backfield from the same team was taken in the first round. During Tuberville's final five seasons at Auburn, 26 Auburn players were drafted, including 22 in the last five drafts. Of those 22 selections since 2005, almost half have been selected in the first two rounds--five first-round selections and five second- round picks.

Carnell Williams earned NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year honors in 2005, while in 2006 Marcus McNeill became the first NFL rookie offensive lineman in 16 years to start in the Pro Bowl. McNeill was named to the 2007 Pro Bowl making him just the second NFL lineman ever to be named to the Pro Bowl in their first two years.

COACHES AND STAFF

The East team head coach at the 2006 Hula Bowl, Tuberville is currently on the Board of Trustees of the American Football Coaches Association and is serving a three-year term on the AFCA rules committee. For his numerous achievements during his career, Tuberville was inducted into the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame in February, 2008.

Off the field, Auburn earned more than 81 SEC Academic Honor Roll distinctions during Tuberville's tenure, and when the NCAA released its Academic Progress Report (APR) in February 2006, Auburn football had a multi-year score of 981, which was the highest score among public BCS conference institutions. The program received public recognition from the NCAA for being in the top 10 percentile nationally and was one of only four BCS institutions to earn such distinctions.

Entering the 2007 season, 10 players had graduated before the start of the season. Coupled with four December graduates, Auburn played in the Chick-fil-A Bowl with 14 graduates on its roster.

In 2006, 11 players had graduated before the start of the season, and Auburn had 16 graduates on its 2007 AT&T Cotton Bowl roster. In 2005, 12 players graduated prior to the Capital One Bowl, while in 2004, nine players who had already earned their degrees played in the Nokia Sugar Bowl. In 2003, linebacker Dontarrious Thomas, a three-time SEC Honor Roll selection, was one of eight Division I players named a National College Scholar-Athlete which awarded him a $18,000 postgraduate scholarship from the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame.

Tuberville's community service reached well beyond the local, state and national level in May 2008, when he participated in the inaugural Armed Forces Entertainment Coaches Tour in the Middle East with fellow college coaches Mark Richt of Georgia, Randy Shannon of Miami (Fla.), Jack Siedlecki of Yale and Charlie Weis of Notre Dame. With a mission to help boost troop morale, the six-day tour made stops at military bases in Germany, Qatar, Bahrain, United Arab Emirates and a visit to the USS Nassau in the Persian Gulf.

In addition, Tuberville continually stresses the importance of participating in community service projects to Texas Tech's football team. Texas Tech football players regularly read at local schools, serve as mentors and visit with the elderly.

Tuberville understands the process and commitment it takes to build a successful program. Coaching stops at perennial college football powers University of Miami and Texas A&M and a four-year head coaching stint at the University of Mississippi gave him the background in building and maintaining a successful program.

While at Ole Miss from 1995-98, Tuberville posted a 25-20 record. Inheriting a Rebel program plagued by NCAA sanctions and probation, he guided Ole Miss to a winning record in his first season in 1995, despite having just 61 players on scholarship. He did not have a full compliment of scholarship players to work with in any of his four years at Ole Miss.

By the time he had three recruiting classes under his belt, Tuberville led Ole Miss to an 8-4 mark and a victory in the inaugural Motor City Bowl in 1997. His efforts earned him Associated Press SEC Coach of the Year Honors and American Football Quarterly magazine selected him as runner-up for its Schutt Sports Coach of the Year honor.

Prior to becoming head coach at Ole Miss, Tuberville served as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Texas A&M for one season. In 1994, he helped lead the Aggies to a 10-0-1 record and No. 8 final ranking by the Associated Press. Under his direction, the Aggie defense finished fourth nationally in scoring defense (13.1 ppg), fifth in total defense (265.5 ypg) and sixth in rushing defense (92.4 ypg).

Tuberville served as a member of the University of Miami staff for eight seasons from 1986-93, taking over as defensive coordinator in 1993. While serving on the staffs of Jimmy Johnson and Dennis Erickson at Miami, Tuberville was a defensive coach on teams which won three national championships, posted an 87-9 record and played in nine consecutive New Year's Day bowls.

As defensive coordinator for the Hurricanes in 1993, Tuberville directed a Miami defense which was ranked No. 3 nationally in scoring defense (12.6 ppg) and No. 5 nationally in pass defense (91.15 ypg). Tuberville began his collegiate coaching career at Arkansas State in 1980, coaching various segments of the Indians' defense over the next five seasons. During a five-year stay at Arkansas State, Tuberville coached defensive backs, nose guards and linebackers. During his final year at ASU, the Indians advanced to the second round of the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs.

He began his coaching career at Hermitage (Ark.) High School where he spent two years as an assistant and two as a head coach. After three straight four-win seasons, Tuberville guided HHS to a 7-3 mark in 1979 before moving to Arkansas State.

A 1976 graduate of Southern Arkansas University, Tuberville was a letterman at free safety and a two-year member of the golf team at SAU. He is a 1972 graduate of Harmony Grove High School in Camden, Ark.

Tuberville is married to the former Suzanne Fette of Guilford, Ind. They are the parents of two sons, Thomas Tucker and Troy Allen.

COACHES AND STAFF

Neal Brown

Offensive Coordinator

Second Season • UMASS '02, '05

In his first year at Texas Tech and in the rugged Big 12 Conference, Brown produced one of the best offensive units in the league. His 2010 squad finished fourth in the conference in total offense (460.2 yards-per-game) and fourth in scoring at 33.1 points-per-game. Most impressively, Brown inherited a team that finished last in the league in rushing offense in 2009 (84.0 yards-per-game) and increased that total by an average of 57 yards-per-game and the Red Raiders finished in ninth in 2010 (141.3 yards-per-game).

Under his guidance, quarterback Taylor Potts threw for 3,726 yards and finished third in the league in passing (286.6 yards-per-game), third in touchdown passes (35), fourth in total offense (286.9 yards-per-game) and fifth in passing efficiency (141.1). Potts was named the MVP of the TicketCity Bowl and was named the AT&T All-America Player of the Week on Oct. 15.

Wideout Lyle Leong also benefitted under Brown's system as he hauled in 19 touchdown passes which was the second most in the country. Leong compiled 926 yards receiving and that mark ranked sixth in the Big 12.

Brown, 30, came to Texas Tech from Troy University (Troy, Ala./Sun Belt Conference) in 2010 where he spent four seasons with the Trojans, including the last two as quarterbacks coach and offensive coordinator. During his tenure at Troy, the Trojans won four consecutive conference titles and earned three bowl invitations.

Despite being the youngest offensive coordinator in the FBS, Brown's impact on the Trojan offense was impressive as his unit ended the 2009 season ranked third nationally in total offense (485.6 yards-per-game) fourth in passing (336.5 yards-per-game) and 16th in scoring (33.69 points-per-game). The Trojan offense dominated the Sun Belt Conference as they led the league in scoring, total offense, passing, pass efficiency and first downs.

In his first season as offensive coordinator in 2008, the Trojans' fast-paced no-huddle offense set 10 school records, including the most total yards in a season, most first downs in a season, most total yards in a game, most first downs in a game, and most pass completions in a game. In his first season as offensive coordinator, Brown led the Trojans to a national ranking of 26 in total offense with 421.42 yards-per-game. He also led the Trojans rushing attack to a 36th-place national ranking, while the passing game came in at 32. The Trojans were the 23rd-highest scoring team in the country in 2008, averaging 33.25 points-per-game under Brown's leadership. In addition, Troy ranked in the top three of every major offensive category in the Sun Belt during the 2008 season.

As the offensive coordinator, Troy won two outright conference championships and played in two bowl games. He also tutored the 2009 Sun Belt Player of the Year in quarterback Levin Brown. Brown was second in total offense and sixth in passing while setting numerous school records.

During Brown's first two seasons at Troy he coached the inside receivers. In 2007, the Trojan offense was among the nation's leaders in scoring, total offense, passing, rushing, and most plays from scrimmage.

In Brown's first season at Troy, he helped transform the Trojan offense from one of the worst in all of college football to a unit that led the Sun Belt Conference. Brown, along with outside receivers coach Shayne Wasden, led a receiving corp that finished the season with three receivers ranked among the top 10 in the conference.

Brown went to Troy after serving as wide receivers coach at the University of Delaware, a perennial Division I-AA power. He started three freshman in the Blue Hens' spread attack and led them to a 6-5 record. Prior to his stint at Delaware, Brown served as wide receivers coach and quarterbacks coach at NCAA Division I-AA Sacred Heart in 2004; leading the Fairfield, Conn. school to a record of 6-4 overall and the top-ranked scoring offense in the conference. Brown came to Sacred Heart after working as tight ends coach and offensive line assistant at the University of Massachusetts. In 2003, he helped lead the Minutemen to a share of the Atlantic-10 title and a berth in the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs.

He earned his undergraduate degree in Business Management in 2002 and his Masters in Business Administration in 2005, both from the University of Massachusetts.

Brown earned two letters as a wide receiver at UMass, catching 58 passes for 721 yards and four touchdowns while being named to the Atlantic-10 All-Academic and the NCAA Division I-AA Athletic Director's Academic All-Star Team as a senior.

The Danville, Ky. native played his first three seasons at the University of Kentucky. While at Kentucky, Brown earned two letters and participated in the Outback and Music City Bowls. He was also a member of the Southeastern Conference's All-Academic Team all three seasons.

Brown is a member of the Boyle County Baseball and Football Hall of Fame. He is married to the former Brooke Stewart, and the couple has two daughters Adalyn and Anslee.

Chad Glasgow

Defensive Coordinator

First Season • Oklahoma State '95

Chad Glasgow, who helped construct five nation-leading defensive units in 10 seasons at TCU, joined the Red Raider football program in January of 2011 as defensive coordinator.

Glasgow's tenure at TCU was marked by one of tremendous success as he helped develop one of the nation's premier defensive units. The Horned Frogs led the nation in total defense in each of the last three seasons and five times in the last decade (2000, 2002, 2008, 2009, 2010). Glasgow was named the 2010 National Defensive Backs Coach of the Year winner by FootballScoop.com.

Glasgow has coached 14 all-conference selections at safety, including 2010 consensus first-team All-American and Jim Thorpe Award finalist Tejay Johnson. Johnson, a two-time All-Mountain West Conference selection, and Colin Jones were All-MWC picks in 2010.

Four TCU safeties in the last four years have signed NFL contracts. Stephen Hodge, who led the nation in sacks by a defensive back with eight in 2007, was a sixth-round draft pick by the Dallas Cowboys in 2009. Hodge and David Roach earned All-MWC honors in 2007. Roach and Brian Bonner signed 2008 free-agent contracts with the New Orleans Saints and San Diego Chargers, respectively. In 2006, Marvin White was first-team All-MWC and later a fourth-round draft pick of the Cincinnati Bengals. Bonner was a second-team selection. White and Jeremy Modkins were All-MWC in 2005.

Also during his tenure at TCU, Glasgow also tutored all-conference safeties Kenneth Hilliard, a free-agent signee with the Buffalo Bills, and Marvin Godbolt, who inked a professional contract in the Canadian Football League.

Glasgow coached safeties, including 2000 Southland Conference Player of the Year C.J. Carroll, at Texas State from 1998-00. Prior to his stint at Texas State, Glasgow spent one year at Illinois State as the linebackers coach.

Glasgow also had coaching stops as a graduate assistant at both Oklahoma State (1994-95) under Bob Simmons and New Mexico (1996) with Dennis Franchione. Gary Patterson was the Lobos' defensive coordinator that season.

A three-year letterwinner, Glasgow played linebacker at Oklahoma State. He earned a Bachelor's Degree from OSU in Business Administration in 1995. Glasgow and his wife, Maida, were married in March 2010. The couple has twin boys, Brance and Colt, born in November 2010.

COACHES AND STAFF

Sonny Cumbie

Inside Receivers

Second Season • Texas Tech '04

Sonny Cumbie's association with Texas Tech football began in 2000, when he was a walk-on quarterback. Cumbie is now in his second year a full-time assistant under Texas Tech Head Coach Tommy Tuberville and serves as the inside receivers' coach under offensive coordinator Neal Brown.

In Cumbie's first season in 2010, the Red Raiders piled up 4,146 receiving yards along with 39 touchdowns. Tech's 39 receiving touchdowns was one better than the Red Raiders totaled in 2009. Inside receiver Detron Lewis led the squad with 87 catches on the season and finished second with 852 receiving yards.

During his years as a football player at Texas Tech, Cumbie worked diligently and waited patiently for his chance to serve as starting quarterback in the prolific Tech offense—and in 2004, he earned the spot and led the Red Raiders to an 8-4 season. During that season, Cumbie twice led the Red Raiders to 70+ point games and capped off the season with a 520 yard MVP performance in the 2004 Holiday Bowl victory over (then) No. 4 California. Cumbie still holds the Holiday Bowl record for most passing yards. He finished the season with 4,742 yards passing—fifth-best in school history, and 7th best in NCAA History. He was an Honorable Mention performer on the field and All Big 12 Performer in the classroom.

Following a successful career at Texas Tech, Cumbie went on to play for the Los Angeles Avengers of the Arena Football League (AFL). As a rookie in 2006, Cumbie started 12 games and set a franchise record for most passes attempted without an interception: 252. He was named the AFL All-Rookie Team Quarterback and was a finalist for Rookie of the Year. Upon completion of the 2006 season, Cumbie was signed by the Baltimore Ravens. In 2007 Cumbie was back in the AFL, leading the Avengers to their 1st playoff victory in franchise history, throwing for 83 touchdowns.

From 2005-2009, during the AFL's off seasons, Cumbie served on the Texas Tech Sports Network as an analyst. He was able to stay closely involved with Tech football while broadcasting their games and offering the insights of a former player.

After the Arena Football League suddenly ceased operations before the start of the 2009 season, Cumbie became the Head Coach and Director of Player Personnel for the San Angelo Stampede of the Indoor Football League. Four games into the season, Cumbie also added starting quarterback to his list of responsibilities. Once again, as he had with the Avengers, Cumbie led a franchise to the playoffs and its first playoff win in the team's history.

Cumbie and his wife, Tamra, are both natives of Snyder, Texas, and have called Lubbock home for more than 10 years. Cumbie graduated from Texas Tech with a Bachelor's Degree in History; his wife has a Master's Degree in Technical Communication.

Tommy Mainord

Outside Receivers

Second Season • Tarleton State '01, '04

Tommy Mainord begins his second season as Texas Tech's outside receivers coach after joining the Red Raiders from Lamar University in February of 2010.

In his first year at Tech, the Red Raiders piled up 4,146 receiving yards along with 39 touchdowns. Mainord also tutored one of the most dynamic receivers in the nation in Lyle Leong. Leong finished the 2010 season with 19 touchdown catches, which was the second most in the country.

Mainord was named offensive coordinator at Lamar in September of 2008 as the Cardinals began preparations for their return to the gridiron in 2010. Lamar had not fielded a football program in over 20 years.

Prior to his stint at Lamar, he served as the co-offensive coordinator at Sam Houston State in 2008 while recruiting west Houston for the Bearkats. Mainord coached D.D. Terry who rushed for a school-record 1,328 yards to rank seventh nationally among Football Championship Subdivision schools and led the Southland Conference with 132.8 yards per game. He was also a first team All-Southland pick and one of 16 finalists for the Walter Payton Award as the Division I FCS Offensive Player of the Year.

Mainord came to Sam Houston after working the previous six years as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Tarleton State. He served as a student assistant and graduate assistant before taking over as quarterbacks and running backs coach for the Texans in 2002.

In 2004, he coached both quarterbacks and running backs, including Derrick Ross who earned NCAA Division II honorable mention All-America honors and was an NCAA All-Region and All-Lone Star Conference first team selection as well. Ross gained 1,560 yards in 10 games. His yardage was the best rushing total by an LSC back in 14 seasons. Mainord produced two All-LSC running backs in 2003 (Joe Morrison and Carl Steward) as the Texans went 8-4 to claim a second consecutive LSC North Division title. Morrison was a first team selection while Steward earned second team honors.

Tarleton State rolled up 1,773 yards and scored 24 touchdowns on the ground in 2001 as the Texans went 10-3 to earn a No. 10 national ranking and advance to the NCAA Division II quarterfinals. In 2000, Mainord's running backs gained more than 1,675 yards. Mainord played varsity baseball at TSU before joining the Texan football program as a student assistant coach in 1999. He earned both a Bachelor's Degree in Health and Sports Science (2000) and a masters degree in education (2001) from Tarleton State. Mainord is the son of former Texas Tech assistant coach Carlos Mainord who spent 15 total seasons with the Red Raiders.

He and his wife, Tiffany, have a daughter, Maecee and a son, Davis.

Sam McElroy

Defensive Line

Second Season • Tarleton State '01, '04

Sam McElroy begins his second season at Texas Tech where he is in charge of the defensive line.

McElroy, the head coach at Division II Tarleton State University for five seasons, joined the Red Raiders in February of 2010.

McElroy, who led the Texans to a 40-15 record over the last five seasons, directed Tarleton to Lone Star Conference South Division Co-Championships in 2006 and 2009 as well as an LSC Co-Championship in 2009. His 2009 team advanced to the second round of the NCAA Division II playoffs. He was named the AFCA Region IV Coach of the Year in 2009.

McElroy continued the winning tradition at Tarleton by bringing in both quality coaches and players to represent Tarleton in a positive manner. He also continued to build on the traditions and ideals that made Tarleton a winning program.

McElroy, the 24th coach in Texan football history and the 11th since the school became a senior college, has the highest winning percentage (.727) of a head coach in Tarleton history. As a member of the Texan staff as both a head and assistant coach, McElroy helped the Texans to a 65-25 record (.722).

In 2009, the Texans finished 10-3 and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Division II playoffs for just the second time in school history.

In 2008, Tarleton finished 8-3 after starting the season winning the first five games for the second straight season. Tarleton's game with Angelo State – a 31-24 victory over the Rams – was broadcast on national television on CBS College Sports Network. Tarleton tied for third in the Lone Star Conference South Division.

The 2007 Texans finished 9-2 and was denied the school's third NCAA playoff appearance; however, the Texan head coach was named the Lone Star Conference South Division Co-Coach of the Year. The season included an overtime victory over NCAA Division I member Stephen F. Austin.

Tarleton finished the 2006 season 6-4 overall and claimed a share of the LSC South Division championship after going 5-1 in the division. The Texans were just short of the playoffs that season as well. In 2005, McElroy lead the Texans to a 7-3 overall record and was one win short of an NCAA Division II playoff contest.

During his eight years on the Tarleton staff as both a head coach and a defensive coordinator, McElroy saw 56 Texans earn first team All-LSC honors, 34 second team honors and 29 honorable mention nods.

McElroy returned to Tarleton after spending two seasons as an assistant coach at North Texas, an NCAA Division I member of the Sun Belt Conference. Prior to his position at UNT, McElroy spent three seasons as the defensive coordinator for the Texans. In 2002, he also held the position of assistant head coach at Tarleton.

In his two seasons at UNT, McElroy coached three first-team all-conference selections in safeties Craig Jones and Jonas Buckles (two-time honoree). He also helped in the development of Markeith Knowlton, who made the transition from safety to starting cornerback for the Mean Green. UNT made two consecutive appearances in the New Orleans Bowl, and the Mean Green went 9-4 in 2003 and 7-5 in 2004.

During his first stint at Tarleton, McElroy guided a defense that improved each year under his direction. His last season with the Texans, his defense allowed opponents just 271 yards of offense and 17.1 points per game to rank second in the Lone Star Conference. Over his three seasons at Tarleton, McElroy helped 17 players earn all-conference recognition, including the league's Defensive Lineman and Defensive Back of the Year in 2002. The Texans won the Lone Star's North Division in 2002 with a 9-2 overall record, including a 4-1 record in conference games. In 2001, McElroy guided a strong defense that helped Tarleton State win its first-ever Lone Star Conference championship and advance to the NCAA Division II quarterfinals.

McElroy also served as activity director for the National Youth Sports Program (NYSP) summer camp, which is a month-long sports and education program that Tarleton offers to area youths.

McElroy, who has experience as a head coach at the high school level, came to Tarleton after working seven seasons as a defensive coach at Sam Houston State University. During his seven years on the staff at SHSU, McElroy coached eight players who earned All-Southland Conference honors. In addition, he tutored the punt and kickoff return special teams.

McElroy started at SHSU after serving one season as head football coach and athletics director at Alto High School. In 1992, he was named 1992 District 22-AA Coach of the Year after winning the district title and earning a state playoff berth.
In 1991, as head football coach and athletics director at T.K. Gorman High School in Tyler, McElroy produced a 10-3 record, won the district crown and reached the TAPPS Class AA state finals.

He also served as recruiting coordinator and secondary coach at Navarro Junior College in the spring of 1991 and was a graduate assistant coach at Baylor in 1989 and 1990. McElroy, who assisted in the secondary, helped to direct a Baylor defensive unit that led the Southwest Conference in defense both seasons.

A native of Corsicana, McElroy coached as defensive end and freshman coach at Corsicana High School from 1986 to 1988. McElroy's freshman team won nine games in 1987. He was a student assistant and graduate assistant at Texas State from 1983 to 1985, with the Bobcats winning the Lone Star Conference title in 1983.

McElroy earned a Bachelor's Degree in Dducation from Texas State in 1985 before receiving his Master's Degree from Baylor in 1990.

COACHES AND STAFF

Matt Moore

Offensive Line

Fifth Season • Valdosta State '95

Matt Moore enters his fifth season spearheading the coaching efforts for the Red Raiders' front five. Moore is no stranger to the offense and wide line splits as he has coached in the scheme on the high school level for several years and at Troy for a season before joining the Tech staff.

An increased focus on the run game was a priority for the Red Raiders in 2010 while also maintaining Texas Tech's attack through the air. Moore helped guide a relatively inexperienced line to make the Tech offense a more balanced unit, and Tech improved from 12th to ninth place in team rushing while throwing for 4,146 yards. The best news for Moore is that all five starting lineman will return for the 2011 season.

In 2009, Moore faced his most difficult coaching task since joining the Red Raiders as he was forced to replace three starters on the line from 2008, including two All-Americans. His unit showed continuing improvement over the course of the season which culminated in an Alamo Bowl victory over Michigan State.

A better season couldn't have been scripted for Moore's offensive line in 2008 as three players earned All-America status, including Rylan Reed and Brandon Carter, who were named to the Walter Camp and AFCA first teams. Carter also was named to The Sporting News first team, while Louis Vasquez picked up AP third-team honors. Each also was named to various Big 12 All-Conference teams.

The offensive line proved to be the catalyst of the offensive unit in 2008, allowing a single sack per every 54 pass attempts, a number that led the nation. Additionally, the group paved the way for 28 rushing touchdowns, the second-most in school history and the most since the 1993 team tallied 30.

The Red Raiders picked up another NCAA passing title as Graham Harrell led an offense that accumulated 413.2 yards per game through the air. Harrell went on to win the Unitas Award and was fourth in Heisman voting at season's end.

Moore's unit turned in a successful season in 2007, allowing a slim 18 sacks in 763 pass attempts. The ratio of one sack per every 44 pass attempts led the country. Additionally, Vasquez and Reed showed discipline and poise as both were flagged only once each for holding calls. The duo also allowed only three sacks on the season.

Behind the protection of the offensive line, Texas Tech won its fifth NCAA passing title since 2000 and the first since the 2005 season. The Red Raiders averaged 470.3 yards per game through the air, and quarterback Graham Harrell led the nation in passing and won the Sammy Baugh Award as the country's top quarterback.

Moore came to Tech with one year of collegiate coaching experience at Troy, where he helped lead the Trojans to an 8-5 season in 2006, including a New Orleans Bowl Championship over Rice.

Moore's stint on the collegiate level was preceded by successful runs as a coach at the high school level in Georgia and Alabama, where he quickly established himself as a top prep coach. During six seasons as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Hoover (Ala.) High School, Moore helped lead the Buccaneers to three consecutive Class 6A titles and a 77-7 record.

He began his coaching career at Pickens (Ga.) High School in 1996 and continued at Hoover High School after two seasons. Moore served as head coach at North Gwinnett (Ga.) High School, before joining the staff at Troy.

A native of Canton, Ga., Moore played at Valdosta (Ga.) State. He started 34 games during the 1991-94 seasons at left guard and was a first-team All-Gulf South Conference selection as a senior.

Moore received his Bachelor's Degree from VSU in health and physical education. He and his wife, Kelly, have three daughters - Tanner, Reece and Sutton.

Robert Prunty

Defensive Ends

Second Season • Alabama A&M '87

Robert Prunty, the 2010-11 Big 12 Recruiter of the Year, begins his second season at Texas Tech as defensive ends coach.

Prunty, who joined the Red Raiders in 2010 from Hargrave Military Academy, put his mark on the Red Raider football program almost immediately. Prunty was an integral part in signing the highest rated football recruiting class in school history. For his efforts, he was named the 2010-11 Big 12 Recruiter of the Year by both Rivals and Scout.

Prunty's football knowledge and the ability to recruit were the reasons he was brought on board to help Tommy Tuberville install and championship level football program. Prior to Tech, Prunty served as the head football coach at Hargrave Military Academy where 27 of his players went on to the NFL. Between 1999 and 2009, the academy was responsible for six first-round draft choices, including two first-round players coached by Prunty. The academy has also produced two players faced by Texas Tech in bowl games: Virginia offensive tackle Branden Albert and Mississippi defensive tackle Peria Jerry. Albert and Perrywere first-round picks by Kansas City and Atlanta, respectively.

Prior to his tenure at Hargrave, Prunty led a resurgence at Gretna High School in Gretna, Va., as he redirected a program that lost 44 consecutive games between 1991-1995 and went 11-1 in his final season there in 2001. Gretna went on to become a powerhouse, winning multiple state championships.

Prunty is a Chatham, Va., native and a 1983 Hargrave Military Academy graduate. He earned his Bachelor's Degree in social work from Alabama A&M in 1987. Coach Prunty and his wife, Kimberly, have a son, Robert Prunty Jr., and a daughter, Gabrielle.

COACHES AND STAFF

Chad Scott

Running Backs

Second Season • North Carolina '04

Chad Scott, who began the transformation of the Tech ground game in 2010, enters his second season as the running backs coach at Texas Tech.

In his first season, Scott molded a group of running backs that had finished last in team rushing in 2009 and moved them up three spots to ninth in just one year. Prior to his arrival, the Red Raiders averaged just 84.0 yards-per-game in 2009 and that figure rose to 141.3 in 2010, placing Tech in ninth place in the team rushing totals in the Big 12. The Red Raiders averaged 4.2 yards-per-carry and racked up 17 rushing touchdowns.

Prior to his arrival in Lubbock, Scott's group of running backs at Troy rushed for 1,939 yards in 2009 and was responsible for 25-of-29 total touchdowns on the ground. His efforts helped Troy to a third place finish in the national statistical rankings for total offense at 485.6 yards-per-game.

In 2008, he was part of the staff that led the Trojans to a national ranking of 26th in total offense with 421.42 yards per game, and 23rd in scoring offense averaging 33.25 points per game. He also led the Trojans rushing attack to a 36th-place national ranking, while the passing game came in at 32.

In three seasons, Scott has made a big impact on the Troy rushing attack. The run game made significant strides, ranking 35th in the country in 2007, and 36th in 2008. In Scott's first two seasons at Troy, he coached an all Sun-Belt Conference player at running back in Kenny Cattouse and DuJuan Harris. Harris eclipsed the century mark in 2008, his first year as a starter, ranking second in the conference in rushing with 1,077 yards. He also finished fifth in the league in scoring and first in the league in receptions amongst all running backs. In 2009, Scott's last season at Troy, he coached the Sun Belt Conference Freshman of the Year Shawn Southward, who also ranked fifth in the nation amongst all freshmen with 10 rushing touchdowns.

Off the field, Scott is quickly becoming known by his colleagues and others to be a great recruiter. Scott came to Troy from the University of North Carolina, where he served as a graduate assistant, and was primarily tasked with breaking down opponent video and game video in 2006 and 2007.

Prior to his coaching career, Scott was a two-year letterwinner at running back for Kentucky from 2000-2002. As a freshman, he led the Wildcats with 611 rushing yards and was named to the All-SEC Freshman Team, as well as being named a Third-Team Freshman All-American. As a sophomore, he played in eight games and was slowed with an ankle injury which limited him to 210 rushing yards.

After sitting out as a transfer in 2002, Scott played in 10 games as a junior for North Carolina in 2003. That season he rushed for 182 yards. As a senior, he ranked seventh in the Atlantic Coast Conference, averaging 72.4 yards per game on the ground for the Tar Heels. He also totaled 796 yards and eight touchdowns during his senior season at North Carolina.

Following his collegiate career, Scott tried his hand in the NFL, where he spent time with three illustrious franchises in the Cleveland Browns (2005), Pittsburgh Steelers (2005) and New York Giants (2005-06).

A native of Plant City, Fla., Scott received his Bachelor of Arts Degree in Sociology from North Carolina in 2004. He is married to the former Shambrica Jones of Yazoo City, Miss., and the couple has one daughter, Kori Cherrell.

Otis Mounds

Cornerbacks

First Season • Auburn '03

Joining the Red Raider as the cornerbacks coach is Otis Mounds, who spent last season as the defensive graduate assistant.

Mounds came to Texas Tech after a two-year stint as the secondary coach at St. Thomas Aquinas High School in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. While at St. Thomas Aquinas, he tutored LaMarcus Joyner who was named the National Defensive Player of the Year and went on to Florida State. He also coached Cody Riggs (Florida), Brian Robinson (Marshall), Keyon Payne (Miami), Ronnie Kennedy (Central Michigan) and Desmond Southward (Wisconsin).

Prior to moving to St. Thomas Aquinas, Mounds served as the head coach and defensive coordinator for three seasons at Coral Springs Charter School in Coral Springs, Fla. Notable players under his tutelage at Coral Springs included Darius Butler (UCONN/New England Patriots), Evan Landi (South Florida) and Jamal Davis (Florida Atlantic).

Mounds began his coaching career at Dillard High School in Fort Lauderdale in 2000 and ended up serving the school as secondary coach and defensive coordinator.

After completing a four-year career at Auburn (1990-94), Mounds played one season in the Canadian Football League for the Birmingham Barracudas before a four-year stint in the Arena Football League. While in the arena league, he played for three different teams: Memphis in 1996, Florida from 1997-1999 and Carolina in 1999. He graduated from Auburn in 2003 with a degree in health promotions/sports and recreation management.

He and his wife, Myra, have two sons (Otis Mounds Jr. and Myran) and one daughter, Oteria.

COACHES AND STAFF

Joe Walker

Strength & Conditioning

Second Season • Lockhaven '02, Auburn '04

Walker joined the Red Raiders in 2010 after spending two seasons as an assistant strength coach at Auburn, as he joined the Tiger staff in February 2007.

His arrival at Auburn in 2007 was not his first stint with the Tigers as he served as a graduate assistant from May 2003 until May 2005 where he worked directly with the football program then led by Tuberville. Following his graduate assistantship at Auburn, he moved to Texas where he served as an assistant strength coach at TCU from May 2005 until January 2007. Walker also gained experience through brief stints at Kansas State and Pittsburgh.

Walker earned a bachelor's degree in recreation management/fitness option from Lockhaven University in 2002 and a master's degree in adult education from Auburn in 2004.

He and his wife Lauren have two sons, Caden and Colby.

Don Dunn

Director of High School Relations

Second Season • East Tennessee State '76

Don Dunn, a veteran coach of over 32 years, begins his second season as Texas Tech's director of high school relations/assistant strength coach.

Dunn previously served 10 years (1998-2008) under Tommy Tuberville at Auburn as a defensive line coach. Dunn has also made coaching stops at Ole Miss, Nevada-Reno, Pacific, Montana State, Tennessee and Lees-McRae Junior College, along with five years at the high school level.

His recruiting trail throughout the years has taken him to 17 states to recruit potential student-athletes. During his career Dunn has mentored 10 players who have played professionally.

Dunn spent 10 seasons with the Auburn program after serving as the defensive line coach at fellow Southeastern Conference program Ole Miss from 1995-98.

He served as the co-defensive coordinator/defensive line coach for two seasons at Nevada-Reno following a three-year stint at Pacific, where he was the special teams and defensive line coach along with spending two seasons as the program's co-defensive coordinator.

Dunn was the defensive line coach, recruiting coordinator and special teams coach while at NCAA D-I AA Montana State in Bozeman, from 1985-1990. He broke into the Division I ranks as a graduate assistant defensive line coach/special teams coach/head freshman coach at the University of Tennessee from 1983-1985.

Dunn began his career at the high school level from 1976-1980, at Holston High School (Knoxville, Tenn.) and David Crockett High School (Jonesboro, Tenn.) where he was a health and physical education teacher and served as the strength coach from 1977-1980.

Dunn earned an Associate's Degree from Lees-McRae Junior College in 1973. He graduated with a Bachelor's Degree in Physical Education from East Tennessee State in 1976 before graduating with a Master's Degree in Secondary Education from Union College in 1980.

Arnold Gamber

Head Football Athletic Trainer

Second Season • Valdosta State '86

While at Auburn, Gamber oversaw the care, prevention, and rehabilitation of injuries for the Tigers. A 23-year veteran of football, Gamber has worked with the sport at the high school, collegiate and professional levels.

The Stonemountain, Ga., native began his athletic training career at Valdosta State College where he earned his Bachelor of Science in Sports Medicine in 1986. Before his undergraduate degree was complete, Gamber was working in the NFL ranks as a part-time assistant for the Atlanta Falcons beginning in 1985. He continued those duties until 1993 while simultaneously working as an assistant athletic trainer for Georgia Tech from 1989 to 1994. In 1994 he was promoted to full-time assistant athletic trainer with the Atlanta Falcons and remained there until 1997. Gamber served as host trainer during the Peach Bowl from 1991-94 and Super Bowl XXVII in 1994. He has also worked as Head Trainer for the North Team at the Georgia High School Football All-Star Game from 1990-92.

Gamber moved back into the college ranks in 1997 accepting the position of head athletic trainer at Middle Tennessee State University. AT MTSU he was responsible for overseeing all aspects of sports medicine care for MTSU's 16 intercollegiate sports. Gamber continued the duties until his arrival at Auburn in 1999.

Gamber has served as President of the SEC Sports Medicine Committee and as President of Georgia Athletic Trainers Association from 1992 to 1994. He also has memberships with the National Athletics Trainers Association, Southeast Athletics Trainers Association, and the Alabama Athletic Trainers Association.

Gamber is married to the former Jamie Saddler of St. Martinville, La. and has two children, son, Christopher Britton, and daughter, Joslyn Coral.

COACHES AND STAFF

Steve Grant

Team Chaplain

Second Season • West Virginia '92

Grant traveled and spoke his testimony the previous 11 years with Sports World Ministries. He shared his testimony with hundreds of thousands of individuals in schools, prisons and churches.

Grant spent six years in the NFL with the Indianapolis Colts (1992-97) and Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1997) as a linebacker. He played in 83 games - 47 starts - where he collected 233 tackles, 3.0 sacks, one interception and recovered six fumbles. Grant officially retired from the NFL in 1999.

During his time in Indianapolis, Grant was active with the local church, various youth football camps, FCA, Subway's Sac Hunger Program, Mental Health Awareness Program, Pro Athlete's Outreach and Pro-Life Athletes.

Grant began his professional career after being selected in the 10th round of the 1992 NFL Draft by the Colts. He worked his way into the starting lineup after just two seasons and in 1995 started every game for the Colts. In 1994, Grant was the Colts' Hard Nose Player of the Year.

Grant's collegiate career was highlighted with an All-America selection in 1991 following his junior season. He is considered one of the greatest linebackers in school history. He totaled 445 tackles in his career, which ranks fourth all-time at West Virginia.

He was West Virginia's team captain for two years (1991-92) and was named team MVP during his final two seasons. He was a two-time All-Big East selection and he helped lead the Mountaineers to the 1989 Fiesta Bowl where West Virginia lost to Notre Dame, 34-21, in the National Championship game.

Will Harriger

Defensive Graduate Assistant - Linebackers

Second Season • Auburn '04

Will Harriger begins his second season at Texas Tech and his first as the defensive graduate assistant under new defensive coordinator Chad Glasgow.

Harriger joined the Red Raider football program as a defensive staff assistant in the spring of 2010 when Tommy Tuberville took over as head coach. Harriger moves into his first coaching role with the Red Raiders after taking over as the graduate assistant during 2011 spring practice. His first official coaching role at Texas Tech came in the 2010 TicketCity Bowl when he was named interim linebackers coach.

Prior to arriving at Texas Tech, Harriger spent the 2009 season as the linebackers coach at the University of Tennessee-Martin. While at UT-Martin, Harriger coached all three of the Skyhawk linebackers which included First-Team All-Ohio Valley Conference selection Josh Bey.

Harriger is making his second stop in the Big 12 Conference, having spent the 2008 season at the University of Texas under then defensive coordinator Will Muschamp. At Texas, he served the Longhorn football program in the role of defensive quality control (linebackers) and was part of a team that ended the season ranked No. 3 (Coaches) and No. 4 (AP) in the country. That Texas team ranked No. 1 in the Big 12 and No. 3 in the nation in rush defense, No. 1 in the Big 12 in total defense and No. 1 in the Big 12 in scoring defense.

A chance to coach at his alma mater, led Harriger to Auburn in 2007 where he served under Muschamp and Tuberville. The Tigers wrapped up the season with a No. 14/15 national ranking and ranked second in the SEC in both total defense and pass defense. The Tigers ranked first in the league in scoring defense as they allowed just 16.2 points per game.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Midwestern State University in Wichita Falls in 2004 before making the first of two stops at UT-Martin (graduate assistant).

Harriger earned his degree in communications from Auburn in 2004.

Ty Linder

Offensive Graduate Assistant

Second Season • Texas Tech '08

Ty Linder begins his fourth season on the Texas Tech Football staff and his second as the offensive graduate assistant.

Linder's work with Texas Tech's special team units in 2010 was evident as the Red Raiders improved in virtually every category. He tutored Eric Stephens who became the school's career leader in kick returns and kick return yardage, surpassing Tech legend Donny Anderson. With a greater focus being played on tight ends in the Tech offense, Linder's coaching duties will also increase beginning this season.

Linder is a former Red Raider himself, having joined the program in 2003 out of Westlake High School in Austin. He lettered for the Red Raiders in 2006 and 2007 at outside Linebacker and was part of four bowl teams.

He earned his Business Degree from Texas Tech in 2088. He is married to the former Kelly Kyger.

Andy Lutz

Assistant Athletics Director/Football

Second Season • Pacific '91, '94

Andy Lutz joined Tommy Tuberville's staff in 2010 as the assistant athletics director for football after serving as assistant to the head coach at Auburn for 10 seasons.

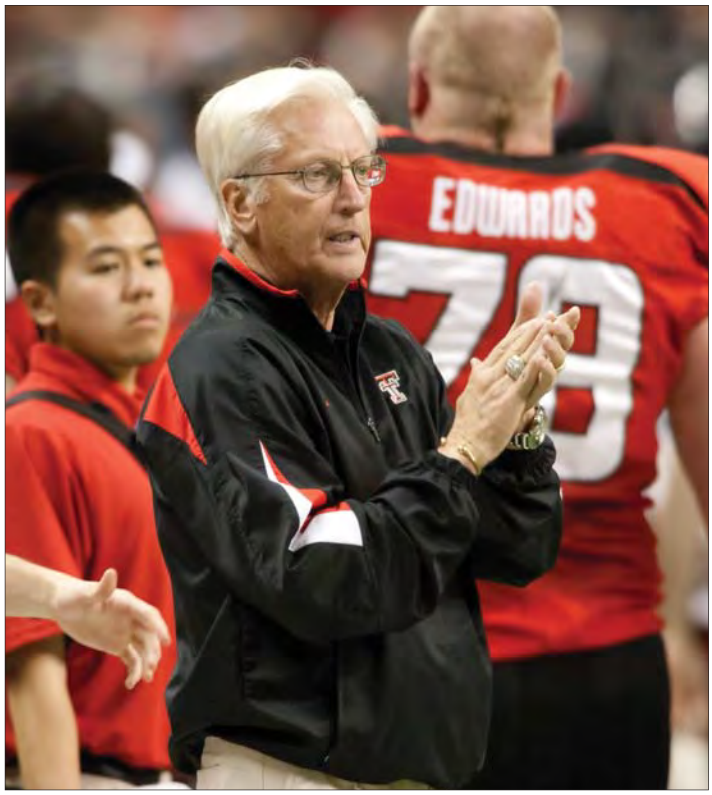
One of his primary duties is to organize the recruiting efforts for the Red Raider football progam. Those efforts paid off in a major way in February as Tech signed the highest rated recruiting class in school history.

While at Auburn, Lutz organized football and fantasy camps for the football program. Lutz has experience from the University of Mississippi as he was an assistant to the athletics director. He coordinated the recruiting process at Mississippi from 1996-1998. Prior to moving to an administrative position he was an assistant coach for linebackers at Ole Miss.

He started coaching at his alma mater, the University of the Pacific, and handled duties as a recruiter and video coordinator before being becoming a graduate assistant at the University of Nevada-Reno. He served as clinic director at the Frank Glazier Football Clinics from 1990-1998.

Lutz earned his Bachelor's Degree in Public Relations from the University of Pacific in 1991 and his Master's Degree in Educational Counseling and Psychology in 1994. He is a member of the American Football Coaches Association. Lutz and his wife Brandy have one daughter, Aberle.

COACHES AND STAFF



Tommy McVay

Director of Football Operations

15th Season • Southeastern Oklahoma State '67

Tommy McVay is in his 15th year as Texas Tech's director of football operations. Named to his current post in September 1997, he oversees many of the administrative duties for the Red Raiders football program.

McVay is a 1967 graduate of Southeastern Oklahoma State University and also received his Master's Degree from the school a year later. He began his career as head basketball coach and assistant football coach in Waynoka, Okla., from 1968-1979. He spent 13 years as athletic director and head football coach on the high school level in Kansas before moving to college assistant coach at Kansas State.

McVay compiled a 100-36-2 record in 13 years as a high school head football coach. His football and track teams at Protection (Kan.) High School captured state runner-up honors in 1972. His football team at Derby (Kan.) High School also finished as state runner-up in 1975. He is a past president of the Kansas Coaches Association and was selected to coach in the Kansas East-West Shrine Game.

McVay was a three-year basketball letterman at Southeastern Oklahoma and also was a three-time conference champion in the 440-yard run. McVay finished among the top 16 at the NAIA National Championships in 1967. He was inducted into the Southeastern Oklahoma State University Athletic Hall of Fame on Feb 14, 2009.

McVay and his wife, Chele, have two daughters, Kelly and Heather, and four grandchildren.

Jim Nichols

Director of Pro & Player Relations

Second Season • Harding '98

Jim Nichols begins his second season at Texas Tech serving a key administrative role for the Red Raider football program.

Prior to coming to Texas Tech, Nichols, served as a defensive quality control coach at Troy University. He was a part of the team that won the Sun Belt Conference and went to the GMAC Bowl in Mobile, Ala.

Nichols' coaching experience includes being the first head football coach at NAIA Faulkner University in Montgomery, Ala. He built the program for three years before his stint at Troy.

Before Auburn he worked under Bill Naper at Murray County High School in Georgia as an assistant football coach.

He received his bachelor of arts from Harding University in Searcy, Ark., and worked in business for four years before moving into football. Nichols is from Searcy, Ark.

Nichols and his wife Haley have three kids Gracie, Peyton and Presley.

Scott Parr

Director of High School Relations

Second Season • Hardin Simmons '98

Parr comes to Texas Tech as director of high school relations after serving as offensive coordinator at West Texas A&M for three seasons.

In 2009, West Texas A&M averaged 31.6 points per game. Parr guided an offensive unit that ranked 14th nationally in total offense, averaging over 430 yards per contest. The Buffaloes' passing offense ranked sixth nationally, throwing for over 350 yards per game.

During the 2008 season, Parr's offensive unit scored 50 or more points on six occasions while breaking no fewer than 64 team, conference and NCAA playoff records. Among them were records for most yards total offense (7,079), total offensive yards per game (544.5), total points scored (626) and points per game (48.1). Under his guidance, quarterback Keith Null shattered the WT and LSC records for passing yardage (5,097), passing yards/game (392.1) and highest completion percentage/season (67.5), among others. West Texas ranked first nationally again in pass offense at 428.6 yards per game, second in total offense at 544.7 yards per game, and second in scoring offense at 48.6 yards per game.

In 2007, Parr's offensive unit continued their record-breaking ways, setting then-WT and Lone Star Conference records for most yards passing in a single-season, most single-game completions, season-completions, season-yards per game and total passing yards (all of which were broken in 2008). West Texas ranked third Nationally in total offense at 529.6 points per game, first in passing offense at 396.5 points per game, and seventh in total offense at 529.6 yards per game.

In his first season with the Buffs' program, Parr helped to direct the WT offense to another spectacular season, as the unit ranked second nationally in team passing yards by averaging 326.1 per game. In addition, 10 WT offensive players earned All-Lone Star Conference South honors, including receiver Charly Martin, who also captured numerous All-American accolades.

Parr earned his Bachelor's Degree in Exercise & Sport Science from Hardin-Simmons University in 1998. He began his coaching career there in 1997 as a student assistant, working with HSU's quarterbacks. During his playing days, Parr was a wide receiver at Hardin-Simmons and was a key element on three Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association championship teams.

Both Parr and his wife, the former Kyla Flippo, are natives of Plainview, Texas. The couple are the parents of a daughter, Berkeley.

Zane Perry

Head Football Equipment Manager

Fifth Season • Texas Tech '05

Zane Perry enters his fifth season as the Head Football Equipment Manager in 2011. Perry was promoted to his current position midway through the 2007 season when he was the assistant equipment manager. Perry is responsible for the equipment of all football players and making sure each player is properly equipped.

Perry's other responsibilities include, issuing all protective and workout gear, preparation of team uniforms, ordering of all team gear including helmets, shoulder pads and other equipment such as the Under Armour apparel. He also oversees the issuing of practice and game clothing for coaches, full-time staff and student staff and making sure the equipment is loaded in advance of away games and bowl games.

Perry, a Lubbock native, joined the full-time equipment staff after graduating from Texas Tech with a degree in exercise and sport science in 2005. During his tenure as a student equipment manager, Perry served as an NFL intern for two summer camps for the Carolina Panthers equipment staff. After his graduation from Monterey High School in 1999, Perry received a scholarship to join the student equipment staff and soon became valuable to the Texas Tech football program.

Zane and his wife, Erica, have one daughter, Presley.

Kirby Hocutt

Diretor Of Athletics

First Season • Kansas State '95, Oklahoma '01

Kirby Hocutt (@kirbyhocutt on twitter) was officially named Texas Tech's 13th athletics director in school history on March 2, 2011. He joined the Red Raider family after spending two and a half years at the University of Miami in Coral Gables, Fla.

Hocutt, who was recognized with Street & Smith's SportsBusiness Journal Forty Under 40 Award, as one of the most promising young executives in sports business, becomes the 13th athletics director in school history and replaces Gerald Myers, who announced his retirement from the post last fall.

Hocutt, 39, is no stranger to the Big 12 Conference as both a student-athlete at Kansas State and as an administrator at both Kansas State and Oklahoma. A four-year letterman on the Wildcat football team, Hocutt led the former Big 8 Conference in tackles his junior season, while earning All-Big 8 accolades. Following his playing career, he moved over to administration where he served as assistant director of marketing and promotions at Kansas State. He later served seven years at the University of Oklahoma where he oversaw fundraising efforts for the Sooners and was the primary administrator for the OU football program.

Hocutt comes to Texas Tech from the University of Miami, where he was named athletics director on Feb. 8, 2008. While at Miami, he oversaw $26 million in new projects, including the construction of a basketball practice facility, as well as upgrades to Alex Rodriguez at Mark Light Field (Baseball), the Neil Schiff Tennis Center and Cobb Stadium (Women's Soccer/Track & Field).

Under his direction in 2010, Miami recorded a program-best Graduation Success Rate of 86 percent, while all 18 teams excelled in the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate Report (APR). Led by the Hurricanes football program - who has posted a multi-year APR score in the top 10 percent - Miami finished sixth in the APR in 2010, and is the only Bowl Championship Subdivision (BCS) team among the 26 schools recognized that finished ranked in the final USA Today Coaches Poll and Associated Press Poll following the 2009 season. In addition, UM's football program was the co-recipient of the American Football Coaches Association's 2009 Academic Achievement Award, graduating 100 percent of its freshman football student-athlete class of 2002.

At the age of 33, Hocutt got his first opportunity as an athletic director at the Division I level with the Ohio University Bobcats, in 2005. At Ohio, Hocutt significantly reorganized the athletic department's annual giving program, increasing fundraising by more than 75 percent, including the securing of the second largest major gift in school athletics history. He also increased season ticket sales in football by 112 percent and in men's basketball by 50 percent. He developed a comprehensive plan to improve the facilities for the football stadium and the press box, as well as the Convocation Center which houses all administrative and coaches' offices.

In his three years at Ohio, the school won 11 team championships and four head coaches were recognized as conference coaches of the year. In 2006, the football team played in its first bowl game in 38 years.

After a stint as the assistant coordinator of licensing at the NCAA, Hocutt joined the staff at the University of Oklahoma in 1998, where he oversaw the fundraising efforts for the Sooners and was the primary administrator for football and sports supervisor for baseball and men's and women's golf. His duties included supervision of the athletics development office, athletics ticket office, special events, stadium suite program, athletics endowment program, letter winners association and the department's facility use and rental program.

Hocutt led Oklahoma's athletics fundraising to an all-time high in annual giving and capital campaigns. From 1998 to 2005, Oklahoma's annual giving increased from $3.4 million to more than $17 million. That 400 percent increase in annual giving was one of the highest percentage increases in intercollegiate athletics history. Beginning in 1999, Hocutt served in a leadership position in the strategic planning for a $100 million capital campaign. The $120 million campaign was unique in that it focused on facility construction or improvements for each of Oklahoma's 20 sports.

Prior to joining the Oklahoma staff, Hocutt served as the assistant director of licensing at the NCAA. In that position, he worked with corporate partners and licensees to create new revenue producing initiatives to support and promote all 81 NCAA championships.

Hocutt earned his Bachelor's Degree from Kansas State in 1995 and his Master's of Education Degree from the University of Oklahoma in 2001. He and his wife, Diane, have two sons: Drew and Brooks.

THOUGHTS ON KIRBY HOCUTT

Kansas State Head Football Coach Bill Snyder

"Kirby was a very fine player for us and is one of those young guys that you love to death. He is a dear friend who was a great teammate, a tremendous student and an excellent person who comes from a great family. I am excited about him returning closer to his roots and the Big 12 Conference and I think he will be absolutely terrific for Texas Tech University."

Oklahoma Director of Athletics Joe Castiglione

"Kirby Hocutt's impressive career in college athletics continues on his strong technical skills and experience. He truly understands the importance of effective leadership and the role each stakeholder group plays in the pursuit of excellence. His ability to listen, assess, visualize and act decisively allows him to develop a strategic, well defined course for the department he leads and the university he represents. Most importantly, Kirby is committed to his family and concerned about those around him. He has always understood that relationships take a priority over everything else. His decisions will reflect what is in the best interest of all involved. Kirby is an outstanding addition to the Big 12 Conference and I am anxious to work with him again."

Big 12 Conference Commissioner Dan Beebe

"Kirby Hocutt's deep roots in the Big 12 provide him a tremendous framework for success at Texas Tech. I welcome the opportunity to work with him. His predecessor has been in integral part of the Tech fabric. I appreciate Gerald's years of service and salute Chancellor Hance and President Bailey on finding such an exceptional successor."

NATIONAL AWARDS

NATIONAL FOOTBALL FOUNDATION AND COLLEGE HALL OF FAME

The National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame recognizes those who made an impact on college football during their careers. There are more than 850 members currently in the Hall of Fame, selected from a pool of more than four million players throughout collegiate football history. Three are from Texas Tech – E.J. Holub, Donny Anderson and Dave Parks, who was enshrined in July 2009 in South Bend, Ind.

HALL OF HONOR

The Texas Tech Athletic Hall of Honor was established in 1961 to recognize a select group of people who have had a special impact on Texas Tech athletics. Induction into the Hall is not limited to past athletes or administrators, although many Red Raider stars are among the members. To be eligible for consideration, the candidate should not only have brought distinction to the Texas Tech athletic program, but also have displayed qualifications such as sportsmanship, character and integrity. A former athlete is not eligible until 10 years after his/her class has graduated. Full-time Texas Tech athletic employees are not eligible. Inductees are honored at the annual Hall of Honor Banquet on Friday night before the Texas or Texas A&M home football game. Since the Hall of Honor's initial ceremony, 143 people have been inducted. More detailed information can be found at www.texastech.com and click on Hall of Honor.

▲ DAVE BROWN (2001-05) served as Texas Tech's cornerbacks coach for five seasons. The former All-American at the University of Michigan and All-Pro with the Seattle Seahawks was inducted into the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame in December 2008.

▲ ROMEO CRENNEL (1975-77) worked under Steve Sloan for three seasons as the director of offseason programs. Crennel has since gone on to the NFL, most recently as the head coach of the Cleveland Browns (2005-08) and defensive coordinator with the Kansas City Chiefs (2010-Present).

▲ BILL PARCELLS (1975-77) was Steve Sloan's defensive coordinator for three seasons. Parcells has paved an impressive path since then, serving as a Super Bowl-winning head coach with the New York Giants in the '80s among other NFL stops. He was the executive vice president of football operations for the Miami Dolphins from 2008-2010.

▲ AL GROH (1980) coached the Texas Tech linebackers for one season before moving on to a successful career in the professional and collegiate coaching ranks. Groh worked with five NFL teams, including a season as head coach of the New York Jets. Groh spent nine seasons as head coach at Virginia (2001-2009).

BOWL HISTORY

Texas Tech has made 34 postseason bowl appearances in its 86-year history and ranks among the top 20 programs all-time in bowl games played. The Red Raiders rank fourth among current Big 12 Conference programs in appearances, and also boast the distinction of being the only program in the league to be bowl eligible every season since the Big 12's formation in 1996.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS
Please direct all credential requests to the online credential portal located at www.texastech.com. Confirmation of your request will be made upon review by Blayne Beal. Credentials are limited to members of the working media who are assigned to cover Texas Tech Football. Please note that Texas Tech Athletics does not grant credential requests to freelance photographers.

Credentials must be requested on-line by 5 p.m. of Wednesday each game week. All requests made game week will be held for pickup until 5 p.m. Friday at the Athletics Communications Office in Room 117 in the south end of Jones AT&T Stadium. Credentials not picked up by 5 p.m. Friday will be available at the Jones AT&T Stadium Will Call window on Saturday. Will Call opens three hours prior to kickoff.

ROAD CREDENTIAL REQUESTS
Please direct all credential requests for Texas Tech's road games to the host school's media relations/communications director. Please note that most schools request that you fill out on an on-line application in order to be considered for credentials.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

PRESS FACILITIES
The Jones AT&T Stadium Press Box is equipped with both ethernet lines and wireless capabilities. For wireless access, contact a member of the Texas Tech Athletics Communications staff on game day. The press box has seating for 108 working members of the press and a dedicated photo workroom for up to 10 photographers.

PARKING
Media parking for the 2011 season will be located at the Texas Tech Greenhouse and the Texas Tech International Cultural Center. Media shuttles will transport credentialed members of the media from those parking areas to Jones AT&T Stadium. Please follow the instructions located on the back of your parking pass for access to each of these parking areas.

MONDAY MEDIA LUNCHEON
During the season, Texas Tech Head Coach Tommy Tuberville will hold a weekly media luncheon inside the football training facility, located next to Jones AT&T Stadium. The event will be held each Monday morning at 11 a.m. beginning on August 29 and running through Nov. 21. Coach Tuberville will be joined by requested players who are able to attend the event when class schedules do not conflict. Please submit your requested players for each Monday's media luncheon by 2 p.m. on the preceding Sunday. Transcripts of each news conference will be available on the athletics web site (www.texastech.com) on Monday afternoon.

TUBERVILLE AVAILABILITY

For the media: Live video streaming of any Texas Tech Athletics event, including news conferences, on any social media platform is strictly prohibited. Violations of this policy will lead to a revocation of credentials.

USE OF AUDIO/VIDEO IN COVERAGE OF TEXAS TECH ATHLETICS
Any media entity collecting any sort of "video or audio materials" (film, traditional video or audio, digital video or audio, photos, etc.) from Texas Tech University Athletics game events or press conference/media events may use that material only for traditional television newscasts, Web-based or print coverage, or other electronic transmission as approved by the University in writing, with a limitation of up to three (3) minutes in length from any single event. Such media entity may not offer any live video, audio or other coverage of the event without the advance, written permission of Texas Tech University Athletics.

This policy includes all games, matches and events involving any of Texas Tech's athletic programs. It includes all media events -- press conferences, pre/post-practice interviews and pre/post-game interviews. An exception would be a one-on one interview arranged through the Texas Tech Athletics Communications office with a Texas Tech, coach, athlete or administrator.

TO WIN THIS CONFERENCE, YOU HAVE TO PLAY THE
WHOLE CONFERENCE.
We believe a true conference champion
can only be decided by playing everyone.
Not just some of the teams some of the time.
